to renew the spirit of

Constant chatter and mirth in the halls as the periods change, a thoughtful and studious atmosphere in the classrooms during tests, impatient dashes to the cafeteria for lunch, and a general lightheartedness seem to typify our school life. Excluding the long and dreaded Monday mornings, our activities and friendships seem to blend with our studies to create a quite instructive, tolerable, and even enjoyable existence.

Oh, the countless number of times these buses and cars have traveled to Foard to bring the students and the teachers. Each of the one hundred and eighty trips every year is necessary for our life at Foard.

Up and down these walks continually promenade the students of Foard. During lunch period, before school, and after the final bell, there are always an individual, more often a pair, and sometimes a group pacing the gradually wearing concrete.

For health classes, baseball and softball games, and soon football, we shall remember the enjoyable hours spent on the activity field. All the sprained ankles, dislocated thumbs, and the like will never overshadow the fellowship we enjoyed there.

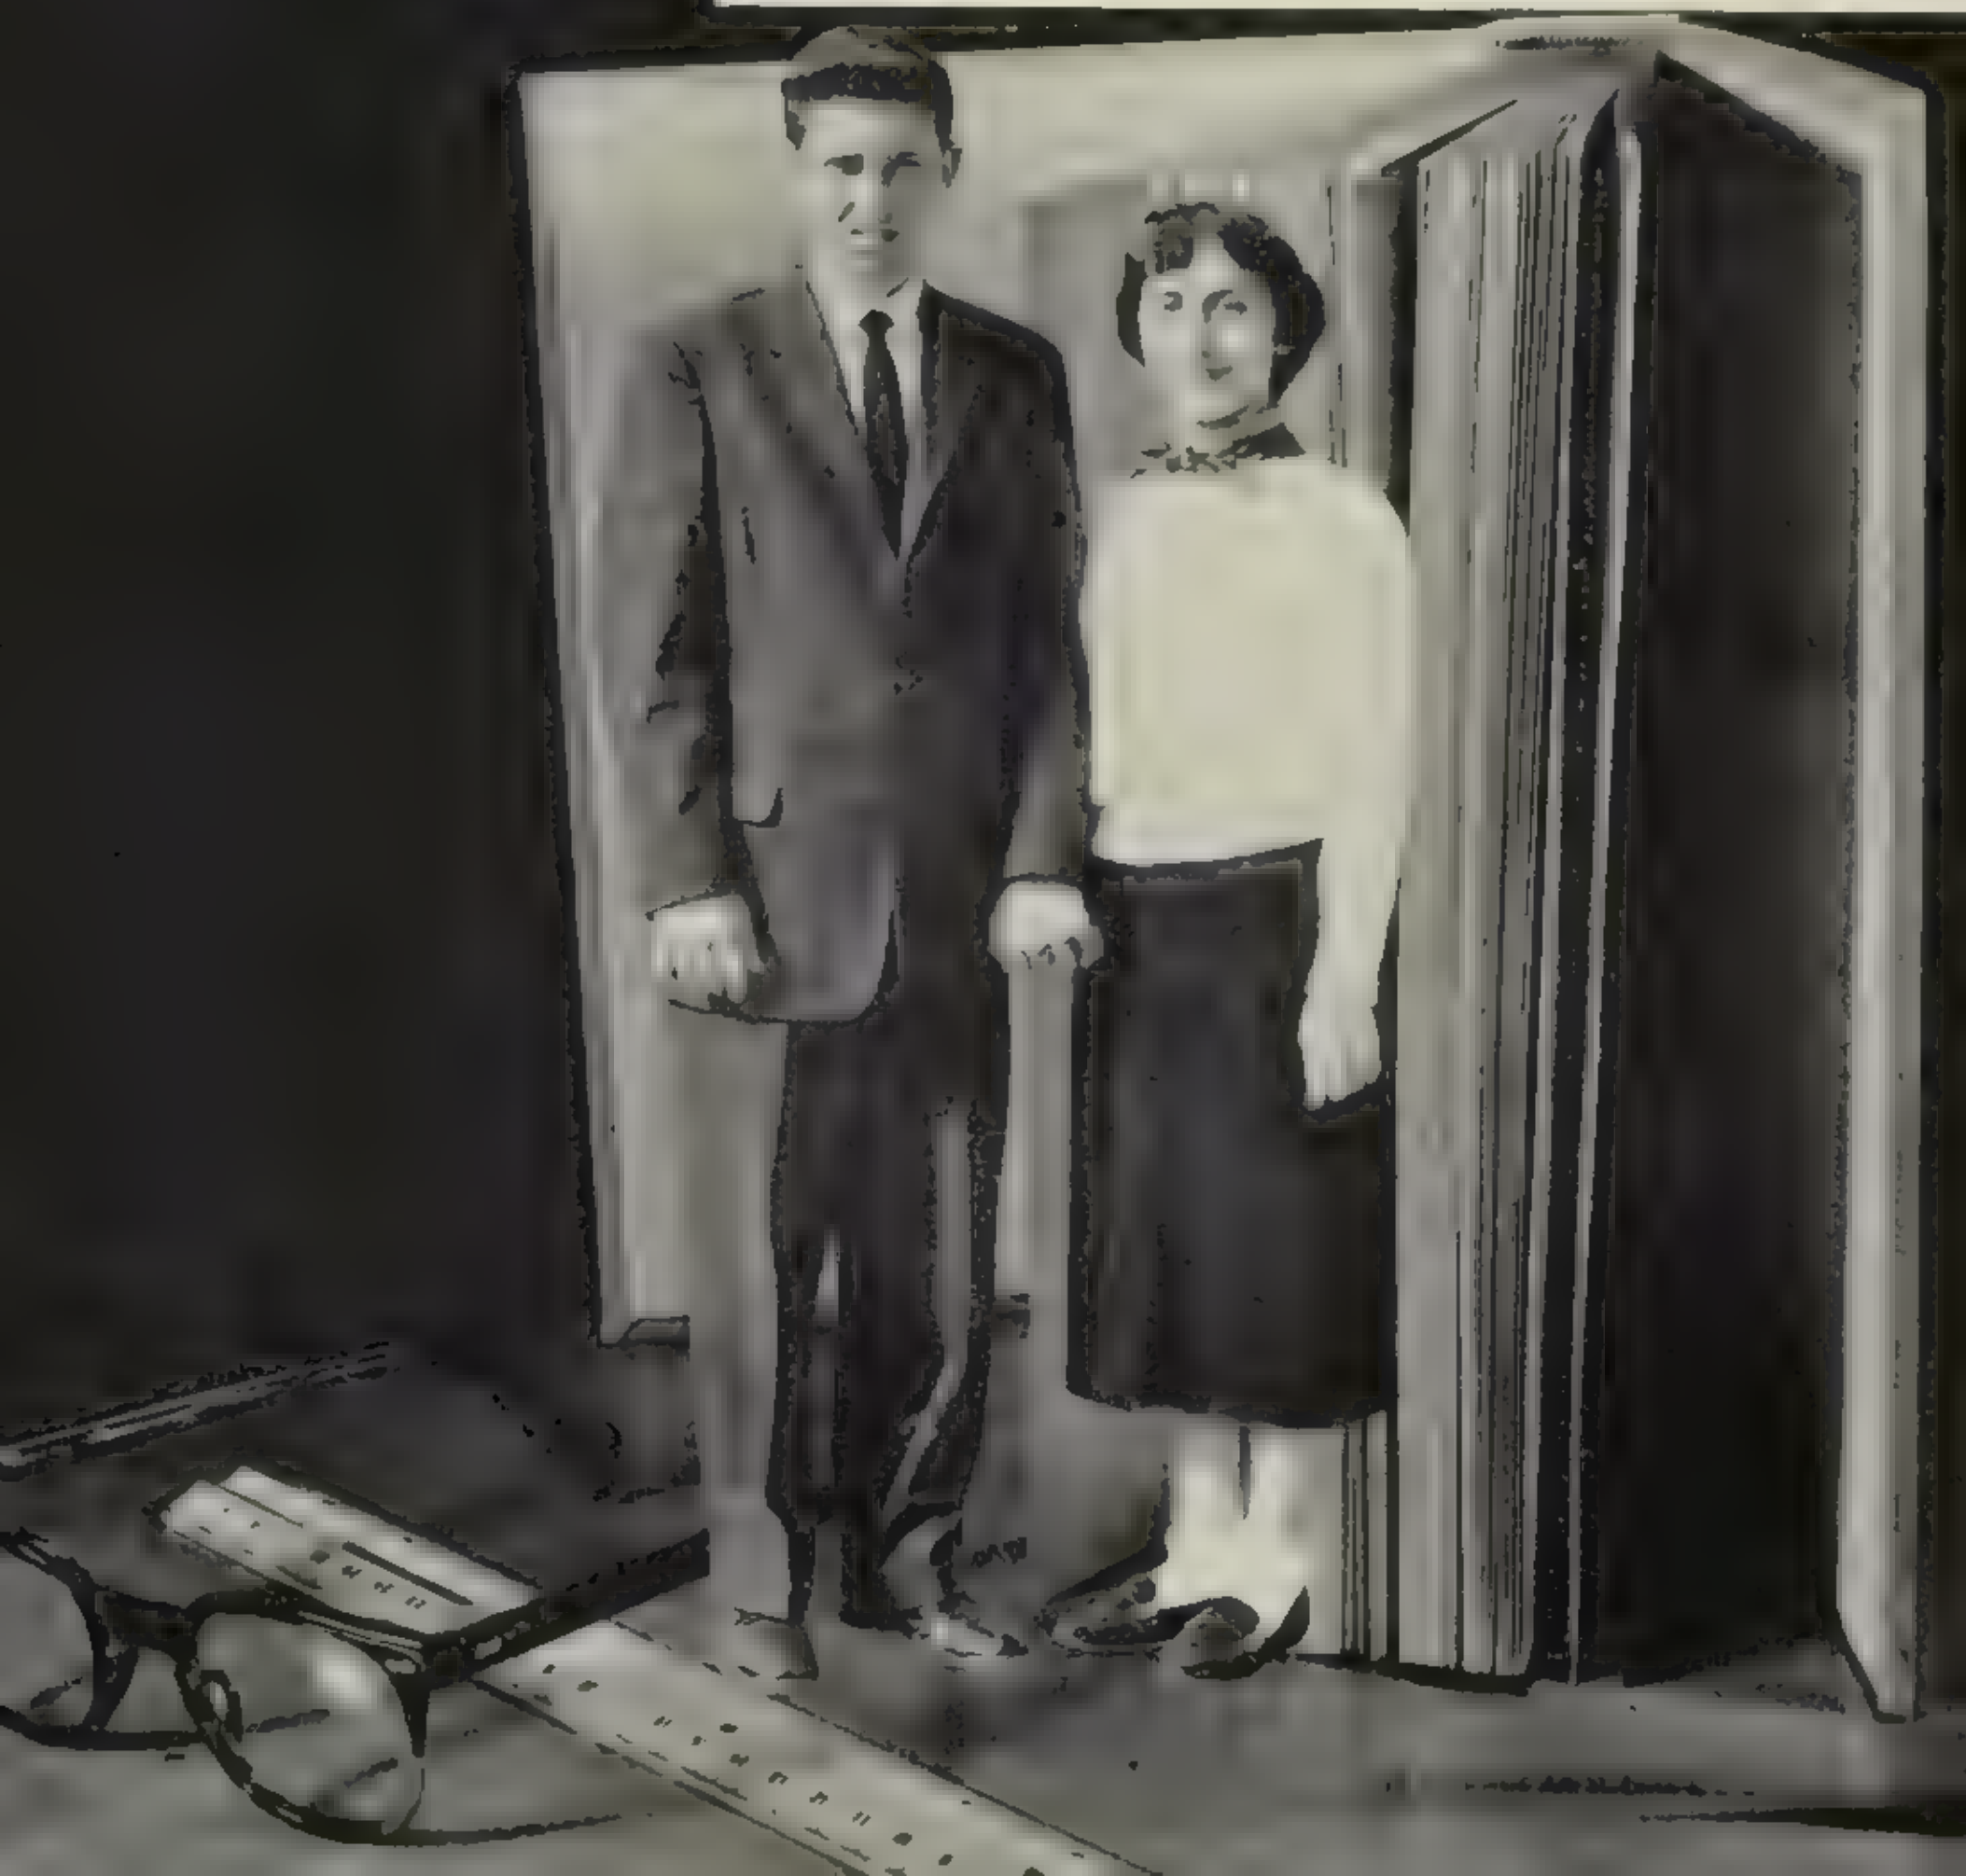

ALL OF

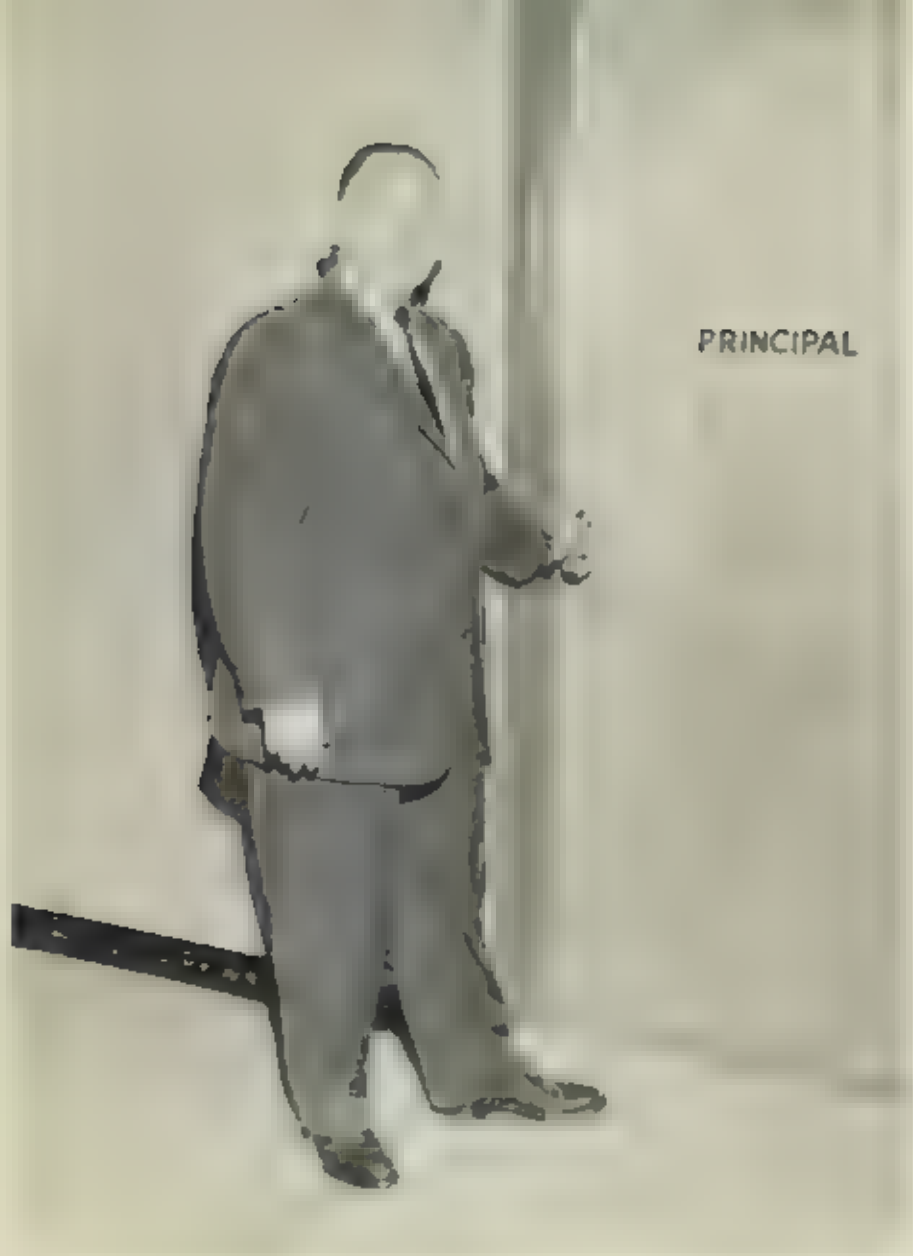

this is our School!

We dedicate...

We, the senior class of 1958, wish to dedicate the Quatra-Log to all the teachers who have so diligently and faithfully guided us during our school years. We can never repay them for the long hours they have spent with us. We only hope that in the course of our lives the seeds of knowledge they have sown will flourish and their efforts will be rewarded by the success and happiness of those they taught.

J. H. Cheerleaders Create Spirit

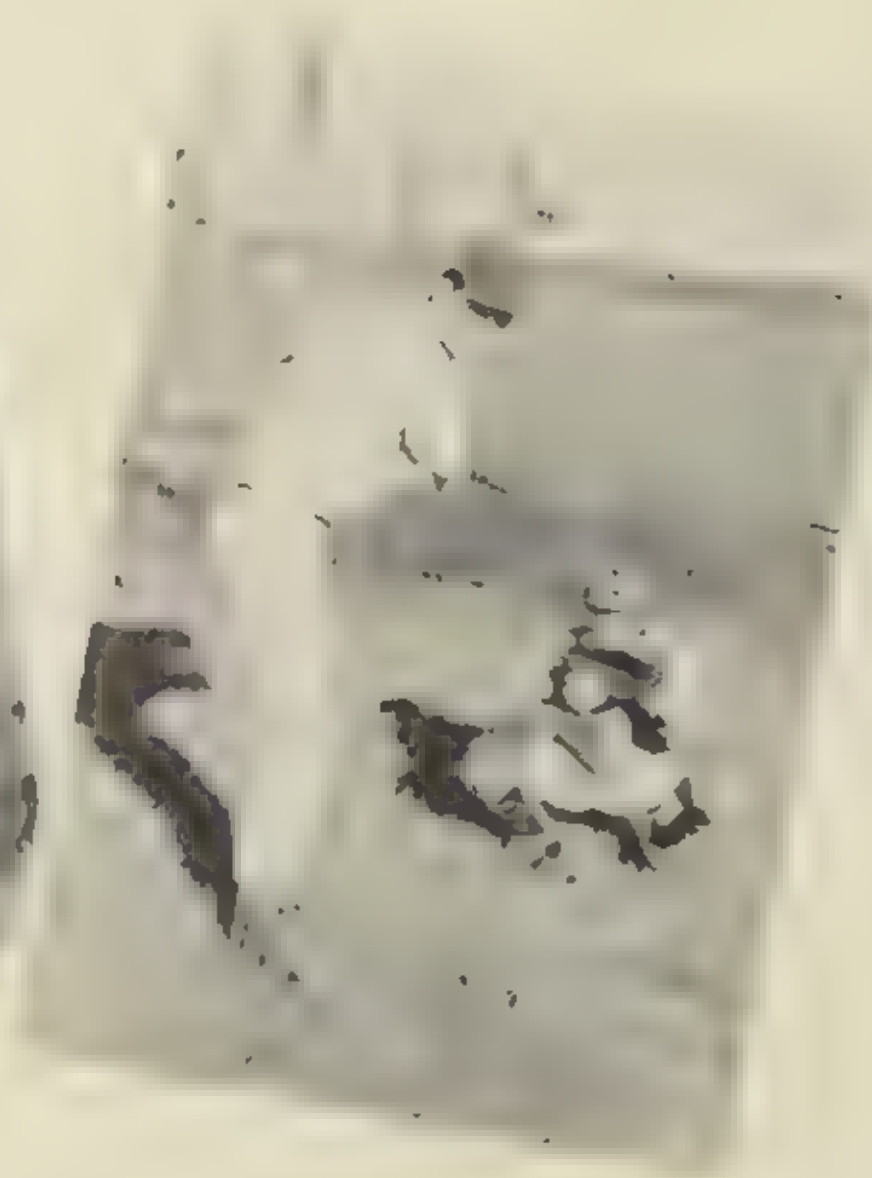

Every time our basketball team shares up a victory, our cheerleaders can be seen cheering. For the role of morale-builders they are indispensable. They do well the right thing and preserve their own spirit of Foard High.
